Family Tree

Task 1

Objectives:

- to discuss family
- to make a family tree
- to discuss faith fathers/ancestors

Approx. Time: 75 min.

Materials:

- People Bingo Sheet for each learner
- Family Tree Discussion Board, markers, coin and Family Tree Cards for each group
- Romans 4 Text for each learner

Hebrews 11:1-2

Instructions:

Part A: Introduction

1. Put up the cover page of the curricula, Faith Ancestors, and elicit from the learners what an ancestor is. List some of the ideas generated on the board such as:
  - a person from whom one is descended
  - forebear
  - progenitor
  - fathers & mothers, grandfathers & grandmothers, great grandfathers & great grandmothers etc.
  - family tree
2. Hand out the People Bingo Sheets to each learner. Instruct the learners that they are to circulate among their classmates to find out information about them. They should ask the question to elicit a yes or no answer and write in the name of the person who answers yes.
3. Review orally with the learners how the question is formed for each question.

Instructor Note: Optional: for advanced proficiency learners they should get a full page BINGO and for lower proficiency learners they need to only get a limited number, perhaps 3.
4. The object of the task is to get a BINGO – fill in a line vertically, horizontally or diagonally.
5. When someone has a BINGO, lead a circle drill:
  - have the first learner ask the first question on the sheet to the learner next to him/her
  - have that learner answer yes or no
  - if the responder answers no, I don't then the questioner should then ask, Who does?
  - the responder should then answer from their sheet or say, I don't know.
  - the responder then becomes the questioner of the person on his/her other side.

Family*Question: *Are you...? Do you...? Who does...?Answer: Yes, I do. No, I don't. ...does. I don't know.

<hr/> <hr/> is the firstborn in the family.	<hr/> <hr/> is a mother.	<hr/> <hr/> knows the meaning of his/her name.
<hr/> <hr/> is a grandparent.	<hr/> <hr/> knows where his/her ancestral home is. (Where his/her ancestors were born.)	<hr/> <hr/> knows his/her grandfather.
<hr/> <hr/> has a son.	<hr/> <hr/> likes to learn about his/her ancestors.	<hr/> <hr/> is a father.

Part B: Talking about Family

1. Explain that in this task each of the learners will have an opportunity to talk about their relatives, their ancestors, their traditions, celebrations, birth stories, jobs and names.
2. Have the learners form groups of four.
3. Hand out a Family Tree Discussion Board, markers, a coin and a set of Family Tree Cards.
4. Explain the process of the activity:
  - Place the 8 cards on the tree in the middle of the board.
  - Each group member starts with his/her marker on one of the tree squares on the four corners of the board.
  - On his/her turn, the learner tosses the coin and moves his/her marker along the squares, 2 squares if the coin is heads and 1 square if it is tails.
  - When a learner lands on a square with a picture, he/she needs to pick up the Family Tree Card with the corresponding picture and read one of the questions to the learner sitting on their right.
  - The activity is finished when everyone has gone around the board at least once.

2. Provide each learner with poster paper and markers. Invite each learner to draw a diagram of their family using whatever form they are familiar with.
3. In pairs, have the learners explain their Family Diagrams to one another. Then have each learner share one or two interesting facts about their partner's diagram with the entire class. (If you have a large class, this could be done in groups of four.)

Part D

1. Explain that we will be focussing on some of the men & women who are the physical and/or spiritual ancestors of the faithful followers of God. Most of the accounts of their lives are in the books of Genesis & Exodus of the Holy Bible.
2. Hand out the page of excerpts from Romans 4. Present to the learners that Paul, in the 1st century, wrote these in a letter to the Christians in Rome (Romans 4, The Message).
3. Have the learners highlight every phrase with father in it.
4. Elicit the phrases from the learners and write them on the board. Encourage them to explain what they think they mean.

Answer Key:

Abraham, our first father in the faith line 1	Abraham is father of all people line 1-2
Abraham is, father of those who have undergone the religious rite of circumcision line 6-7
Abraham is father of us all. line 10	He is not our racial father line 10
He is our faith father line 11	We call Abraham "father" line 11-12
"I set you up as father of many peoples" line 15-16	he was made father of a multitude of peoples line 17

5. Point out that we will look more closely at Abraham and some of his descendants.
6. Elicit what the learners already know about Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph & Moses.

Our Faith Father

Abraham, our first father in the faith . . . Abraham is father of 2 all people who embrace what God does for them while they are still on the "outs" with God, as yet unidentified as God's, in an 4 "uncircumcised" condition. It is precisely these people in this condition who are called "set right by God and with God"!

6 Abraham is also, of course, father of those who have undergone the religious rite of circumcision not just because of 8 the ritual but because they were willing to live in the risky faith-embrace of God's action for them . . .

10 For Abraham is father of us all. He is not our racial father—that's reading the story backward. He is our faith father. . . We 12 call Abraham "father" not because he got God's attention by living like a saint, but because God made something out of 14 Abraham when he was a nobody. Isn't that what we've always read in Scripture, God saying to Abraham, "I set you up as father 16 of many peoples"?

And so he was made father of a multitude of peoples. God
18 himself said to him, "You're going to have a big family, Abraham!"

The Ancient Near East

Task 2

Objectives:

- to understand the dates and locations of the events and people of the curriculum

Approx. Time: 60 min.

Materials:

- Personal SLIDE
- Name and Date Cards
- Map A and Map B for each pair
- Ancient Near East Map SLIDE

Hebrews 11:1-2

Instructions:

Part A: Personal Time Line

1. Review the concept of a time line. Show how a time-line marks past, present and future. Show how to mark an event on the time line. Use a version of your own time line to illustrate on the board or the Personal SLIDE.

Present

/_____/_____/_____/_____/_____/_____/_____/

2. Have each learner draw their own time line, putting on it significant events from their life.
3. In small groups, have learners share their time lines.

Part B

1. Tell the learners that in this book they will be exploring the lives of people that lived long ago. The lessons will look at significant events in the time lines of their lives.
2. Draw the learner's attention to the time-line that is on the large sheet on the wall.

Instructor Note: On a very long piece of paper (3 meters or however much room you have on the wall) draw this time line. Do not write the names on it as the learners will stick the cards with names on in the appropriate places.

This is what the final time line should look like. This page can be copied to give to the learners as a worksheet.

3. Place any historic events that the learners mention on this time line.
4. If there are events from the learner's own cultural heritage that can be integrated with the time line, add them.
5. Explain that in this study of Hebrews 11, we will be looking at the lives of many different people that lived in the ancient Near East a long time ago.
6. Hand out the Name and Date Cards, one or two per learner.

Instructor Note: you may have to explain that B.C. means before the birth of Christ, and C. means 'circa' or 'about'.

Birth of Jesus Christ	Joseph c. 1800 BC	Isaac c. 1900 BC	Abraham c. 2000 BC
Moses c. 1500 BC	Jacob c. 1850 BC	Sarah c. 2000 BC	Creation Date Uncertain

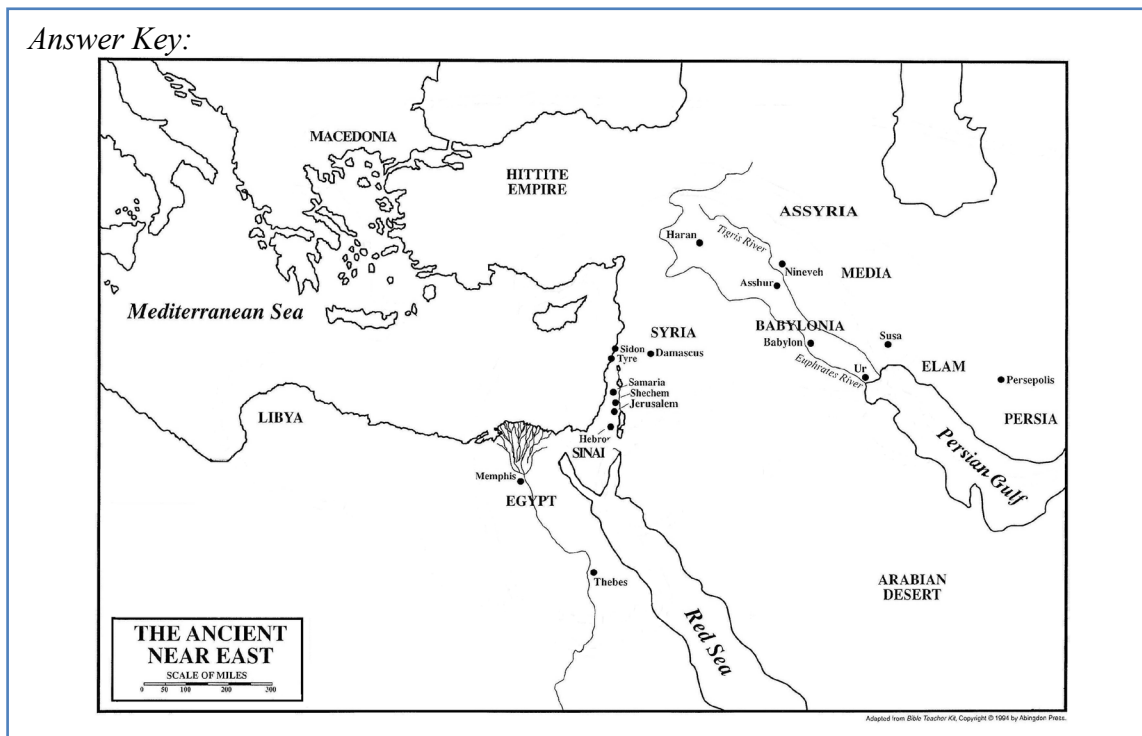

7. Have the learners find the date on the time line that corresponds with the date on their card. Have them stick the card to the time line on the wall.

Answer Key

Part C

1. Distribute the Map A and Map B. Explain that most of the events in these people's lives took place in this area.
  - Elicit and list the main geographic features.
  - Ask the learners what they already know about this area, both in history and at present.
2. Have the learners form pairs, Learner A and Learner B. Instruct the learners to ask each other where the places are to fill in the gaps in their maps. Make sure they do not show each other their maps, but rather explain the locations to one another.

Ask the learners to write in the additional place names on their maps.
3. Put up the Map of the Middle East SLIDE and take up answers from the class.

Map A

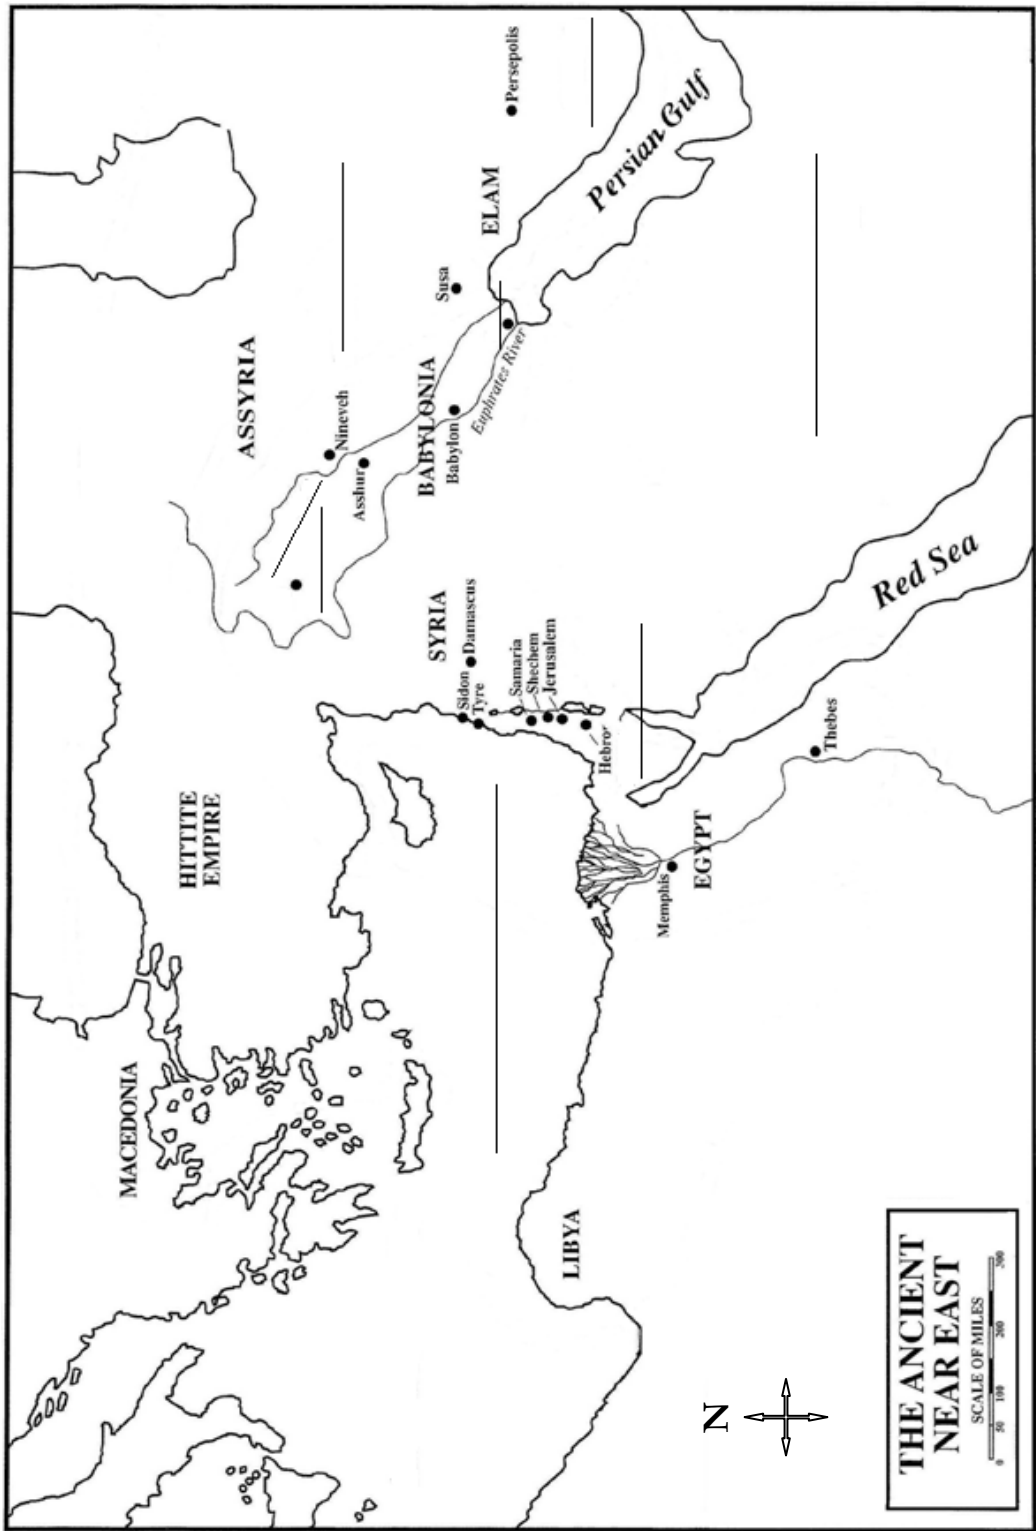

Instructions: Ask your partner to explain to you the locations of the following places on your map. Do not show each other your maps. Write in the additional place names on your map.

God's Approval

Task 3

Objectives:

- to scan a text for specific information

Approx. Time: 30 min.

Materials:

- Hebrews 11:1-2 Text SLIDE/ Audio
- Hebrews 11 Text for each learner
- Hebrews 11 Text SLIDE
- highlighters

Hebrews 11:1-2

Instructions:

1. Play the Audio or read the Hebrews 11:1-2 Text aloud to the learners.

Instructor Note: All the Audio Files for the whole curriculum are embedded in the PPT SLIDES. Click on the Audio Icon  to listen.

2. Ask the learners to listen for the topic or theme, what the passage is about. Play or read the text again. If they have trouble, tell them it's one word. FAITH.
3. Present the idea of scanning: quickly running your eyes over the text to find specific details.

Hebrews 11:1-2

What is faith? It is the confident assurance that what we hope for is going to happen. It is the evidence of things
we cannot yet see.
God gave his approval to people in days of old because of their faith.

Hebrews 11:1-2 Text SLIDE

4. Hand out the Hebrews 11 Text. Ask the learners to scan for the word 'faith'. How many times does it occur? Have the learners highlight each instance that they find. Give them a time limit. Explain that we are not reading for all the details; we only want to see how many times 'faith' is used. We will be reading all the details later in the course.
5. Have the learners compare with their neighbours to see if they missed any. What is the final count?
6. Ask the learners to scan the Hebrews 11 text again for proper names. How many people are mentioned by name (the names will be capitalized)? How many places are named? Are any special events named?

Hebrews 11 Text

2 What is faith? It is the confident assurance that what we hope for is going to happen. It is the evidence of things we cannot yet see.
God gave his approval to people in days of old because of their faith.
4 ...

6 It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his 8 inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by 10 faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in a tent. And so did Isaac and Jacob, to whom God gave the same promise. Abraham did this 12 because he was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

14
It was by faith that Sarah together with Abraham was able to have 16 a child, even though they were too old and Sarah was barren.
Abraham believed that God would keep his promise. And so a whole 18 nation came from this one man, Abraham, who was too old to have any children—a nation with so many people that, like the stars of 20 the sky and the sand on the seashore, there is no way to count them .

It was by faith that Abraham offered Isaac as a sacrifice when God 24 was testing him. Abraham, who had received God's promises, was ready to sacrifice his only son, Isaac, though God had promised him, 26 "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted."
Abraham assumed that if Isaac died, God was able to bring him back 28 to life again. And in a sense, Abraham did receive his son back from the dead.

30 It was by faith that Isaac blessed his two sons, Jacob and Esau. He had confidence in what God was going to do in the future.

32
34 It was by faith that Jacob, when he was old and dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and bowed in worship as he leaned on his staff.

36 And it was by faith that Joseph, when he was about to die, confidently spoke of God's bringing the people of Israel out of Egypt.
38 He was so sure of it that he commanded them to carry his bones with them when they left!

40 42 It was by faith that Moses' parents hid him for three months. They saw that God had given them an unusual child, and they were not afraid of what the king might do.

44
46 It was by faith that Moses, when he grew up, refused to be treated as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to share the oppression of God's people instead of enjoying the fleeting pleasures of sin. He 48 thought it was better to suffer for the sake of the Messiah than to own the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to the great 50 reward that God would give him. It was by faith that Moses left the land of Egypt. He was not afraid of the king. Moses kept right on 52 going because he kept his eyes on the one who is invisible. It was by faith that Moses commanded the people of Israel to keep the 54 Passover and to sprinkle blood on the doorposts so that the angel of death would not kill their firstborn sons.

56
58 It was by faith that the people of Israel went right through the Red Sea as though they were on dry ground. But when the Egyptians followed, they were all drowned.

Task 4

Objectives:

- to understand the key vocabulary and collocations

Approx. Time: 20 min.

Materials:

- Word and Definition Cards in differing colours for each group
- Rewrite Worksheet for each learner
- Phrases of Faith Cards for each pair
- Phrases of Faith Worksheet for each learner

Hebrews 11:1-2

A Very Sure Promise

Instructions:

1. Divide the class into groups of four. Hand out a set of Word and Definition Cards. Have the group shuffle the cards and distribute four cards to each learner, and match the Word Card with its Definition Card.

Answer Key

(give) approval	assurance	confident	evidence
(show) acceptance	promise	very sure	reason for believing faith	happen	hope for	yet
strong trust	take place	desire and expect	up to now

2. When all matches have been made, hand out the Rewrite Worksheet to each learner and instruct each group to rewrite the Hebrews 11:1-2 text replacing the words with the definitions (except the first 'faith'). The result should be something like this:

What is faith? It is the very sure promise that what we desire and expect is going to take place. It is the reason for believing things we cannot, up to now, see. God showed his acceptance to people in days of old because of their strong trust.

3. Each group should read the new wording aloud.

Fill in the blanks with the following words or phrases:

desire and expect	promise	reason for believing	(show) acceptance
strong trust	take place	up to now	very sure

What is faith? It is the _____ _____ that what we _____ is going to
 _____. It is the _____ things we cannot, _____, see. God _____ to people in days of old because of their
 _____.

Optional: a more difficult task

1. Explain to the learners that the word 'faith' is used in many different expressions in English. Hand out a set of Phrases of Faith Cards to each pair. In pairs, have the learners match the meanings of the 'faith' phrases by placing the two cards together.
2. In groups of four, have the learners within each group take turns giving examples of each phrase. An example of 'worthy of faith' could be: "This phrase makes me think of my husband. He is a man you can trust. If he makes a promise, he will keep it. He is worthy of faith."
3. Instruct the learners to write their own definition of the word 'faith'. The text gives us a definition. These phrases help us to see additional meanings.
4. Have the learners write in their own words, the answer to the question: 'What is faith?'

Answer Key:

1. a childlike faith	2. article of faith	3. blind faith	4. faithfully
very simple trust	a statement of belief	complete acceptance without question	devotedly, loyally
5. keep faith	6. pin one's faith on	7. put faith in	8. take on faith
keep one's word or promise	depend on	believe without doubt	take at face value
9. the Christian faith	10. the faithful	11. worthy of faith
the Christian religion	true believers of a religion	trustworthy

From the Phrases of Faith below, match with the correct meaning.
After completing the matching, answer the question What is faith?

1. a childlike faith	2. article of faith	3. blind faith	4. faithfully	5. keep faith	6. pin one's faith on
7. put faith in	8. take on faith	9. the Christian faith	10. the faithful	11. worthy of faith

true believers of a religion

very simple trust

take at face value

devotedly, loyally

a statement of belief

trustworthy

Questions, Questions?

Task 5

Objectives:

- to understand and use appropriate rising and rising-falling intonation patterns

Approx. Time: 45 min.

Materials:

- SLIDES
- Rising/Rising-Falling Intonation Worksheet for each learner
- Listening Worksheet for each learner
- Faith Dialogues Worksheet for each learner
- magazine pictures

Hebrews 11:1-2

Instructions:

Part A

1. Put the following sentences on the board:
  - God has given his approval.
  - What is faith?
  - Are you sure?
2. Point out to the learners the intonation patterns of these sentences.
  - the first, God has given his approval, has a rising-falling intonation pattern: the pitch jumps at 'prov' and continues down until the end of the sentence.
  - the second, What is faith?, has the same pattern: the pitch jumps at faith and then glides down to the end.
  - the third, Are you sure?, is different: the pitch jumps up at sure and continues to rise.
3. Both patterns are very common in English. Draw the patterns on these sample sentences to illustrate for the learners.
4. English has 4 levels of pitch:

4. __extra high__

3. __high__

2. __normal__

1. __low__

  - The rising-falling pitch jumps from 2 to 3 at the last stressed syllable of a phrase and then steps or glides down to 1.
  - The rising pitch jumps from 2 to 3 at the last stressed syllable of the phrase and then continues up to 3. This pitch pattern has the meaning of incompleteness.

What is faith? (rising-falling)

God has given his approval. (rising-falling)

What is going to happen? (rising-falling)

Will what we hope for happen? (rising)

Are you sure? (rising)

Did the teacher give his approval? (rising)

Part B: Listening

1. Give each learner a Rising/Rising-Falling Intonation Worksheet. Have them listen as you read the questions and they mark the questions whether they hear rising-falling or rising intonation.
2. Stop after each question and check to make sure the learners are in fact hearing the different intonation patterns. Have learners give you feedback on which they heard.

2. Divide the learners into pairs, having one learner A and the other B.
Learner A looks only at column A; Learner B only at Column B.
3. Instruct Learner A to say the sentence as the intonation is marked.
Learner B listens to the questions and circles the intonation pattern heard - a rising -falling or rising intonation.
4. After number 6 switch roles.
5. Compare the markings on the two columns when they are finished.

Listening Worksheet

Part D

1. Hand out the Faith Dialogues Worksheet. Instruct the learners to mark the intonation units on all the questions in the dialogues.
2. Have the learners practice the intonation patterns on the sample dialogues.

Part E Asking Questions

1. Find some suitable magazine pictures.
2. Divide the class into groups of three. Give one person in each group a picture and instruct him/her not to show it to the others. Another person asks questions about the picture. The third person listens for correct intonation and tells the questioner how they did after the conversation.
3. Rotate roles within the groups. Take a new picture and do the same thing. Repeat again with a third picture. Each person should have a turn to be the questioner, the answerer, and the listener.

Faith Dialogues

Ravi: I hear this ESL curriculum is all about faith. What are your thoughts about faith?

Sooni: I don't know. Faith has never been very important to me. What about you? Do you believe in a God?

Ravi: I do. My faith in God is very important to me.

Sooni: I find it impossible to accept that there is really a God. What makes you so sure there is a God?

Ravi: That is a good question. What makes you so sure there isn't a God?

Lilia: This is going to be interesting, studying the Bible and studying English at once. Have you ever read the Bible?

Omar: Not really. How about you?

Lilia: Yes, I have. It has become a very important book to me.

Omar: Really? What is it that you find interesting about the Bible?

Lilia: The Bible has shown me the way to faith in God.

Omar: The way to God? Faith? What do you mean by that?

What Was That?

Task 7

Objectives:

- to use appropriate strategies in asking for clarifications and meanings of words

Approx. Time: 30 min.

Materials:

- Asking for Clarification Cards for each group
- Answer Key SLIDE
- Role Play situation cards

Hebrews 11:1-2

Instructions:

Part A

1. Tell the learners that in learning a language we frequently find ourselves asking the meaning of a word or explaining the meanings of words. In this task they will learn a variety of ways to ask about the meanings of words and or asking for clarification.
2. Explain that there are many ways in English to ask for clarification, and as English learners it's very helpful to know them and to know which ones to use when.
3. Write the following question on the board:
What is faith? Elicit different ways of asking the same question. e.g.
  - How would you define faith?
  - Describe the word 'faith.'
  - What does 'faith' mean?
  - Could you tell me what 'faith' means?
  - Give me an example of 'faith.'
  - What do you mean by 'faith'?
4. Go over the twelve ways of asking for clarification using the Asking for Clarification Cards/SLIDE. Go over the intonation of each. Ask the learners if they know any more. There are more. Have the learners practise intonation by repeating after you.
Rising intonation: All except:
  - "How do you spell that?"
  - "I'm sorry to bother you, but would you mind repeating that, please?"
  - "Could you tell me the meaning of that?"

Instructor Note: "Sorry," "Excuse me," and "Pardon me," with falling intonation have a different meaning. Use them when apologising.

How do you spell that?

Did you say _____?

Was that _____?

Pardon me?

Come again?

Could you repeat that?

Excuse me?

What?

Sorry?

Could you repeat that, please?

What was that?

I'm sorry to bother you, but would you mind repeating that, please?

Asking for Clarification SLIDE

5. Divide the class into groups of three. Give each group a set of Asking for Clarification Cards and ask them to put them in order from rude to polite. There will be some guessing, and some discussion. Let them process the sentences.

How do you spell that?	Did you say _____?
Was that _____?	Pardon me?
Come again?	Could you repeat that?
Excuse me?	What?
Sorry?	Could you repeat that, please?
What was that?	I'm sorry to bother you, but would you mind repeating that, please?

6. After all groups have established an order, call the class back together and ask them to report. Do all groups agree?
7. Use the Answer Key SLIDE to present how English speakers would order them.
8. Point out “pillowing” as it relates to politeness. Extra words soften or pillow your requests. In general, the more words in the sentence the more polite it is. ‘Please’ and ‘thank you’ are the most common pillowing words.
9. Point out that you have to “read” the situation, to choose how much pillowing is appropriate. Watch out. In some situations you will sound strange if you use too much pillowing. How much pillowing you use depends on equality, independence, and formality of the situation. Is the person you are speaking to your equal, your superior, or your inferior? Is the situation formal or informal? In North America, people tend to talk to each other as equals, even if a power difference exists.

Clarification Attitude:	Clarification Question:
Rude:	What? *Huh?
Not really rude, but somewhat irritating:	Sorry? Come again? What was that?
Polite:	Pardon me? Excuse me? How do you spell that? Did you say _____? Was that _____? Could you repeat that? *How would you define 'faith'? *What do you mean by 'sure promise'?
Very polite:	Could you repeat that, please? *Would you mind defining 'faith' for me?
Extremely polite:	I'm sorry to bother you, but would you mind repeating that, please?
